

CREATIVE WRITING

An Intermediate short course for people experiencing homelessness, or affected by mental health, addiction or justice services

This course dives into storytelling with weekly focuses on character, dialogue, plot, and themes. Students will explore mini sagas, poetry, journalism, imagery, and music-inspired writing, practice creative exercises, and receive constructive feedback to written work. By the end, participants will have new tools to keep growing as confident, expressive writers.

Please note: This is not purely an analytical course; you will be expected to write in and/or out of class

When: Wednesday 24 August, 2.30-4.30pm for 12 weeks

Where: The Marie Trust, 29 Albion Street, Glasgow G1 1LH

BOOK NOW

amcilwaine@themarietrust.org.uk /
text Adam on 07903263261

