

TARTAN: A JOURNEY THRU TIME

A short course for people experiencing homelessness, or affected by mental health, addiction or justice services

Join us for an exciting new programme exploring the history of tartan through time from its ancient origins to its place in popular culture today.

As well as learning about the history of our national cloth, the people who wore it and the people who made it, you will also have the chance to weave a small sample of tartan for yourself.

When: Monday 24 August, 1-3pm for 10 weeks

Where: The Marie Trust, 29 Albion Street, Glasgow G1 1LH
